DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-9,11-30,32,33,25-39 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art cited does not anticipate individually nor teach in combination the following limitations:
  - Richter (3,253,137) although disclosing a light source contained within a globe, a clasp attached to the top portion of the globe for use in attaching the lighting device to a garland, Richter does not disclose a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end and a second end, the first end connected to a male insert configured for insertion into one of the pre-existing sockets of the lighting string, the second end connected to a lighting assembly, a lighting assembly including a light for illuminating a decorative element and configured for association with an enclosure of the decorative element, a hollow enclosure including the decorative element contained therein and a neck adapted to receive the lighting assembly and a clip attached to the wire for receiving a light bulb removed from the one of the pre-existing sockets of the lighting string; and the combination of a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end connected to a male insert and a second end connected to a lighting assembly, the lighting assembly comprising a plurality of LEDs and a base for supporting the plurality of LEDs; a hollow enclosure including a decorative element contained therein and a neck having an opening for receiving the lighting assembly; a threaded gasket fittedly positioned around the neck; a collar having a hole through which the wire is inserted, the collar slidably positioned between the first end and the second end, the collar having an interior surface adapted to threadably receive the neck; and a clip removably attached to the wire, the clip including a circular void dimensioned to receive a light bulb from a lighting string; and the combination of a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end and a second end, the first end connected to a male insert configured for insertion into one of the preexisting sockets of the lighting string and the second end connected to a lighting assembly, the male insert comprising a base and a husk, the husk including a pair of resilient tabs having a fixed end flexibly attached to and extending angularly from opposed sides of the husk in a coaxially aligned spaced apart relation, wherein each tab is adapted to deflect in a direction towards the opposed tab upon application of a biasing force and protrude in a direction away from the opposed tab upon removal of the biasing force and a hollow enclosure including a decorative element contained therein and a neck having an opening sized to receive the lighting assembly in a position to illuminate the decorative element.

- Brooks (2,559,706), although disclosing a decorative lighting fixture with lamps extending from and connected to a wire, and a clip extending from the bottom portion of the lamps attached to the wire, Brooks does not disclose a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end and a second end, the first end connected to a male insert configured for insertion into one of the pre-existing sockets of the lighting string, the second end connected to a lighting assembly, alighting assembly including a light for illuminating a decorative element and configured for association with an enclosure of the decorative element, a hollow enclosure including the decorative element contained therein and a neck adapted to receive the lighting assembly and a clip attached to the wire for receiving a light bulb removed from the one of the pre-existing sockets of the lighting string; and the combination of a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end connected to a male insert and a second end connected to alighting assembly, the lighting assembly comprising a plurality of LEDs and a base for supporting the plurality of LEDs; a hollow enclosure including a decorative element contained therein and a neck having an opening for receiving the lighting assembly; a threaded gasket fittedly positioned around the neck; a collar having a hole through which the wire is inserted, the collar slidably positioned between the first end and the second end, the collar having an interior surface adapted to threadably receive the neck; and a clip removably attached to the wire, the clip including a circular void dimensioned to receive a light bulb from a lighting string; and the combination of a wiring assembly including a length of wire having a first end and a second end, the first end connected to a male insert configured for insertion into one of the preexisting sockets of the lighting string and the second end connected to a lighting assembly, the male insert comprising a base and a husk, the husk including a pair of resilient tabs having a fixed end flexibly attached to and extending angularly from opposed sides of the husk in a coaxially aligned spaced apart relation, wherein each tab is adapted to deflect in a direction towards the opposed tab upon application of a biasing force and protrude in a direction away from the opposed tab upon removal of the biasing force and a hollow enclosure including a decorative element contained therein and a neck having an opening sized to receive the lighting assembly in a position to illuminate the decorative element.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
